Pray for Canada

Hey Fourth Avenue Bible Church. This last week we celebrated Canada Day. We recognize that for some, the holiday comes with grief and concern. Grief over decisions that have been made in our history which did not reflect the kingdom of God. Concern over the future and how the church can show up as a faithful witness. We are told not to fear. We are reminded in Scripture that this kingdom is not our truest kingdom. Still, God has placed us here and invited us into his purposes in this land. As such, I want to encourage you to hold up our nation in prayer before God. Hold up our politicians, even and especially the ones you don't agree with. Ask God how He is sending you to be a faithful witness right here where you live.
